Free legal advice available on Coast

THE Central Queensland Community Legal Centre provides free legal advice in a diverse range of areas including Yeppoon.

The CQCLC is conducting outreach clinics at the courthouse in Yeppoon on the first Monday of every month (excluding public holidays) from 9am to 12pm.

They can also provide information, referrals and generalist advice sessions.

Appointments are preferred; however walk-in appointments will be accepted subject to availability on the day.

If you're struggling with your legal problem and live in Yeppoon, the centre strongly encourages people to attend one of its free clinic days at the Yeppoon Courthouse.

Please do not hesitate to contact them and book an appointment today on 4922 1200.

Appointments are available via telephone, Skype or face-to-face for your convenience.
