Having great fun in the name of the law

LAWYERS are sometimes wrongly stereotyped as a solemn bunch that never have any fun.

But one event on the Sunshine Coast recently saw those in the legal fraternity kick up their heels in the name of charity ... and a jolly good time.

The inaugural Lawyers Play Up For A Cause -

Suncoast Community Legal Services Gala Event was organised in support of the Legal Health Check program.

It was held at Noosfest

Twins Waters Resort in April 18.

And Barry Alsdop, of Eyes Wide Open Images, was on hand to capture all the smiling faces.

James Mather, Alex McKean and Judge John Robertson.
