

The World Todaywith Eleanor Hall

An hour of current affairs background and debate from Australia and the world every Monday to Friday, 12:05 pm, ABC Local Radio and Radio National.

Christian lobby opposed Qld human rights charter

Katherine Gregory reported this story on Wednesday, November 2, 2016 12:51:00

| MP3 download

The Australian Christian Lobby has joined legal groups in attempting to block a human rights charter for Queensland.

The Queensland Premier has the go ahead from cabinet to adopt a Victorian-style human rights bill for the state.

But the Christian group says it would curtail religious freedom.

Featured:

Wendy Francis, Qld director of Australian Christian Lobby

Hugh De Krester, Executive Director of Human Rights Law Centre

James Farrell, Director of Community Legal Centres Queensland

©2010 ABC

© 2016 ABC