

Community Legal Centres Queensland

2017 CONFERENCE Scholarships for rural and remote workers

The annual Community Legal Centres Queensland workshop is one of the premier events in the community legal centre calendar. The workshop is an opportunity to develop and strengthen staff member skills, increase their knowledge base and network with people working in the field. Community Legal Centres Queensland has allocated funding to bring ten community legal centre staff to the workshop from regional and remote areas of Queensland. The amount available is $300 per staff member (with a maximum of one applications per centre) and can be used to pay for travel to the workshop or for accommodation on 7, 8 or 9 May 2017.

Centres that are eligible to apply for to the scheme include:

- Aboriginal & Torres Strait Islander Women's Legal Service NQ
- Aboriginal Family Legal Service Southern Queensland
- Cairns Community Legal Centre
- Central Queensland Community Legal Centre
- Environmental Defenders Office of North Queensland
- Goondiwindi Community Legal Service
- Junkuri Laka Community Legal Centre Aboriginal Corporation
- Mackay Regional Community Legal Centre
- North Queensland Women's Legal Service
- Queensland Indigenous Family Violence Legal Service
- Roma Community Legal Service
- Taylor Street Community Legal Service
- Townsville Community Legal Service

To apply for the funding, please complete one form per staff member and return to Community Legal Centres Queensland, by post or email.

If your centre is selected for funding you will then be asked to send Community Legal Centres Queensland an invoice for $300 and submit receipts within one month of the workshop taking place. The deadline for submitting applications is Monday 1 May 2017.
