

2017 TJMF Sydney Lecture

"Lifting the Judicial Veil – Vicarious Trauma, PTSD and the Judiciary: A personal story"

Date: Wednesday 25 October 2017

Time: 5.45pm for 6.00pm - 7.30pm followed by drinks & canapés

Venue: Federal Court of Australia, Law Courts Building
Queens Square, 184 Phillip Street, Sydney

Register: Bookings are essential as places are limited

Admission: $15

Student Concession: $5

Keynote Speaker:

His Honour Magistrate David Heilpern

Magistrate David Heilpern LLB, LLM started practice with the Australian Government Solicitor and then went into private practice on the North Coast of New South Wales specialising in criminal law. He undertook many high profile test cases representing drug law reform and environmental groups. Whilst continuing to practice, David was part of a small team that successfully lobbied for a Law School at Southern Cross University. He became a senior lecturer Read more

Commentary provided by: Dr Greg de Moore & Ms Julie Blythe

TJMF is a charity which seeks to reduce disability and distress of mental ill health in the legal profession and promote a sustainable psychologically healthy and safe workplace. Proceeds from the lecture will support the ongoing initiatives of the Foundation. See website www.tjmf.org.au

The Foundation thanks and greatly appreciates the support of the Federal Court of Australia for providing the lecture venue, Eaton Capital Partners for sponsoring the catering for the event and the Law Society of NSW for assisting with registrations.

FEDERAL COURT OF AUSTRALIA

EATON
CAPITAL
PARTNERS

THE LAW SOCIETY
OF NEW SOUTH WALES

