

The Youth Advocacy Centre Inc invites you to its

36th Annual General Meeting

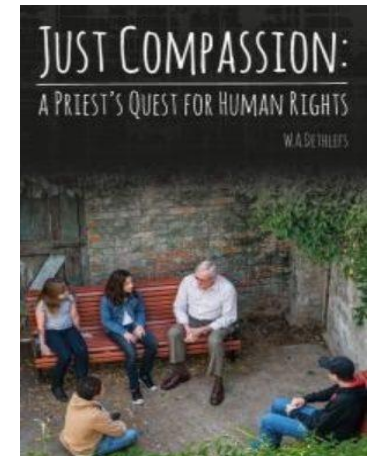

and very special fundraising event for International Children's Day 2017

Father Wally Dethlefs, who was instrumental in the concept for and the establishment of YAC, will be part of a panel including a Churchill Fellowship recipient and a Queensland academic, to discuss young people's involvement in the youth justice system in Queensland, those particularly at risk and how Queensland compares with systems overseas. What has changed since the 1970s and what still needs to change to ensure legal and social justice for some of our most disadvantaged and vulnerable young people?

Followed by refreshments (drinks available for purchase)

Date: Monday 20 November
AGM: 5.30pm
Fundraiser: 6:00pm for 6:15pm start
Venue: Brisbane Arts Theatre
210 Petrie Terrace
PETRIE TERRACE Q 4000
Tickets: $40 online via link below -
<https://www.trybooking.com/SVJP>

RSVP by 15 November 2017

✉ Unit 4/162 Petrie Terrace, PETRIE TERRACE Q 4000 ☎ (07) 3356 1002
✉ admin@yac.net.au

Wally's recently released book about his life's work for social justice, including YAC's history, will be for sale (proceeds to YAC)

Membership renewal is now due

(Contact YAC admin, go to www.yac.net.au or sign-up at the door prior to commencement of the meeting)

Nominations are open for all management committee positions

(contact YAC admin for the relevant forms or go to www.yac.net.au)

If you aren't able to come to the AGM, we would still appreciate you "(re)membering" YAC - we value your support for the work we do and the young people we work with - become a member today!!