

IMMIGRATION LAW CLINIC

OUR SERVICES

Our Clinic is staffed by registered migration agents, legal practitioners, academics and Bond law students who provide free legal advice to vulnerable and financially disadvantaged non-citizens that wish to remain in Australia legally.

The Clinic offers immigration information and advice to:

- persons seeking asylum in Australia on refugee and asylum seeker law.
- persons recognised as having refugee status who are seeking to sponsor family members to Australia.
- persons who are victims of domestic violence and who hold a temporary partner visa in Australia.
- vulnerable international students.
- vulnerable members of the community regarding their visa and visa eligibility (and assistance, if eligible).
- the wider community in the following areas (basic advice only): skilled independent visa, skilled sponsor visa, student visa, graduates visa, partners visa, and parent and other family visas.

WHEN AND WHERE

The Clinic operates on specific Wednesday evenings during University semester periods. It will operate at Bond University Faculty of Law from 5.30 – 7.30pm on Wednesdays 14th February 28th February, 14th March and the 28th March.

HOW TO BOOK AN APPOINTMENT

Call the Bond Law Clinic on 07 5595 1070 or email the Clinic Administrator at bondlawclinic@bond.edu.au to arrange an appointment.