

HARMONY DAY 21 MARCH

The Sunshine Coast is celebrating Harmony Day on Wednesday March 21. The central message for Harmony Day is 'everyone belongs', reinforcing the importance of inclusiveness to all Australians.

Program

- | | |
|------------|---|
| 8am – 10am | Community BBQ, Beach Soccer and Tai Chi |
| 11am – 2pm | Sand sculpture 'Everybody Belongs' at Alexandra Headlands beach
Watch the sand come alive in front your eyes as world champion sand sculptor Dennis Massoud (the Sandman) turns the beach into art. |
| 3.30pm | Sand sculpture workshop
The Sandman will teach you how to create your own sculpture on the beach. |
| All day | Cultural activities

Join in, have fun and learn about different cultures

Play games from around the world

Discover customs, see traditional dress and hear stories

Join a drumming circle, dance and listen to cultural music

Create messages of harmony in the sand together

Everyone is invited to create sculptures, words, patterns and stories on the beach to celebrate Harmony Day and share the message 'Everyone Belongs'. |
| 6pm – 7pm | Harmony Day Picnic and Live Music

Join us on the beach to view the illuminated gallery of sculptures and messages of belonging created throughout the day.
Bring a picnic and listen to music from around the world. |
