

YOUNG PEOPLE AND THE LAW

Thursday 7 November, 10–11am

Community, health and education workers are invited to participate in a free legal information webinar about young people and the law

This webinar will be delivered by Rajiv Gill, senior lawyer, in our youth legal aid team at Legal Aid Queensland and will cover:

- dealing with the police
- drugs, alcohol and parties
- how to support young people appearing before the court
- how Legal Aid Queensland can help and our youth legal advice hotline
- who else can help.

We encourage you to submit any questions for our presenters ahead of the webinar in the registration form.

The webinar will be recorded, captioned and published on our YouTube channel. The PowerPoint slides and any handouts will be emailed after the webinar date to everyone who registers.

For information on upcoming webinars, please check our Information for community workers and carers page. You can also find information about how to get legal help for your clients and other useful services.

Please phone 07 3917 0406 or email webinars@legalaid.qld.gov.au for more information.

You can connect to the webinar session audio via computer audio (VoIP) or via telephone (call costs apply). Visit the GoToWebinar website for information about connecting to webinar session audio.
